

'Xpressions 2005' celebrated at Aanchal school

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, DECEMBER 18 'Xpressions 2005', the annual function of Aanchal International School, Sector 41, was today celebrated at Tagore Theatre. Amidst the backdrop of a multihued depiction of the cultural heritage of India, the students presented a dazzling display of dance and drama. The function was presided over by R.S. Goraya, District Education Officer, UT Chandigarh, as the chief guest.

The cultural extravaganza began with a welcome dance which was a classical dance performance. A complete Punjabi wedding coupled with songs and dance sequence enthralled the audience and was depicted beautifully by the kindergarten students.

A spectacular demonstration of Korean martial art, in which children displayed many self defence techniques was also appreciated by all present. A string of patriotic songs were presented by the toddlers. The play group children put forward an interesting rhyme sequence with great confidence. A play portraying the changing face of the Indian girl, showcased the theatrical skills of the students.

Tiny tots of Aanchal International School, Sector 41, present a Punjabi marriage at their annual function at Tagore Theatre in Sector 18, Chandigarh on Sunday. Tribune photo: Parvesh Chauhan

This was followed by a scintillating Rajasthani dance and yoga asanas. In addition to this Tarzan boy, another dance was also performed.

The function concluded with a foot tapping bhangra.

Speaking on the occasion, the principal of the school

M. Sood informed that various plans had been outlined to create a state of the art infrastructure for students in the new premises.